DEFINITIONS AND QUALIFICATIONS OF PARALEGAL (ALSO KNOWN AS LEGAL ASSISTANT):

Paralegals are a distinguishable group of persons who assist attorneys in the delivery of legal services. Through formal education, training, and experience, paralegals/legal assistants have knowledge and expertise regarding the legal system and substantive and procedural law, which qualify them to do work of a legal nature under the supervision of an attorney. Paralegals may also work for government and corporate entities and perform substantive legal work for which a lawyer is ultimately responsible yet not work under the direct supervision of an attorney while performing these duties.

“Legal Assistant” means a person, “who under the supervision and direction of a licensed attorney, engages in legal research and case development or planning in relation to modifications or initial proceedings, services, processes, or applications; or who prepares or interprets legal documents or selects, compiles, and uses technical information from references such as digests, encyclopedias or practice manuals and analyzes and follows procedural problems that involve independent decisions.” (Fla. Stat. ch. 57.104) The terms “Legal Assistant” and “Paralegal” are utilized interchangeably and such professional positions are not intended to be misunderstood as two separate professions.
