

Heather Rice is a Florida Registered Paralegal at the Clark Partington firm in Tallahassee, Florida. She specializes in commercial litigation, working in the state, federal, and bankruptcy courts of Florida and Georgia. She earned her bachelor's degree from Florida State University and began her paralegal career focusing on catastrophic injury and wrongful death litigation. She is currently the President of the Big Bend Chapter and a member of the National Association of Legal Assistants (NALA).